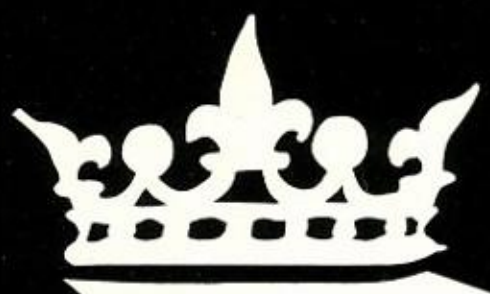
Anthony Serchia entered Mount Carmel in September, 1957. He was active in sports and was a representative on the Student Council. During the school year, Tony was stricken by a disease which took his life on June 17, 1958. In memory of Tony -- his patience, cheerfulness, and leadership -- the school has dedicated this plaque. May the players of both teams compete in Tony's spirit. And may we all keep him in our prayers.



The beginning of wisdom is: get wisdom;
at the cost of all you have, get understanding.
Forsake her not, and she will preserve you;
love her, and she will safeguard you;
Extol her, and she will exalt you;
she will bring you honors if you embrace her;
She will put on your head a graceful diadem;
a glorious crown will she bestow on you.

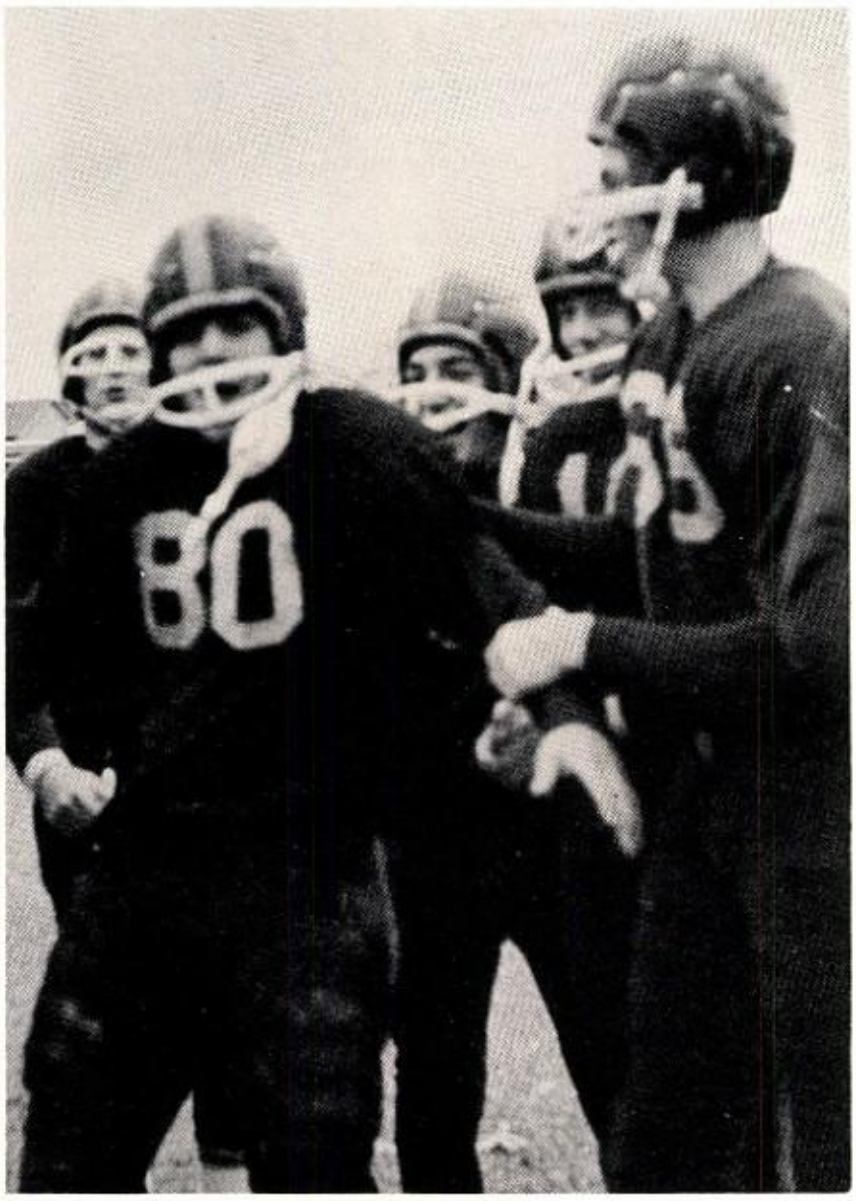
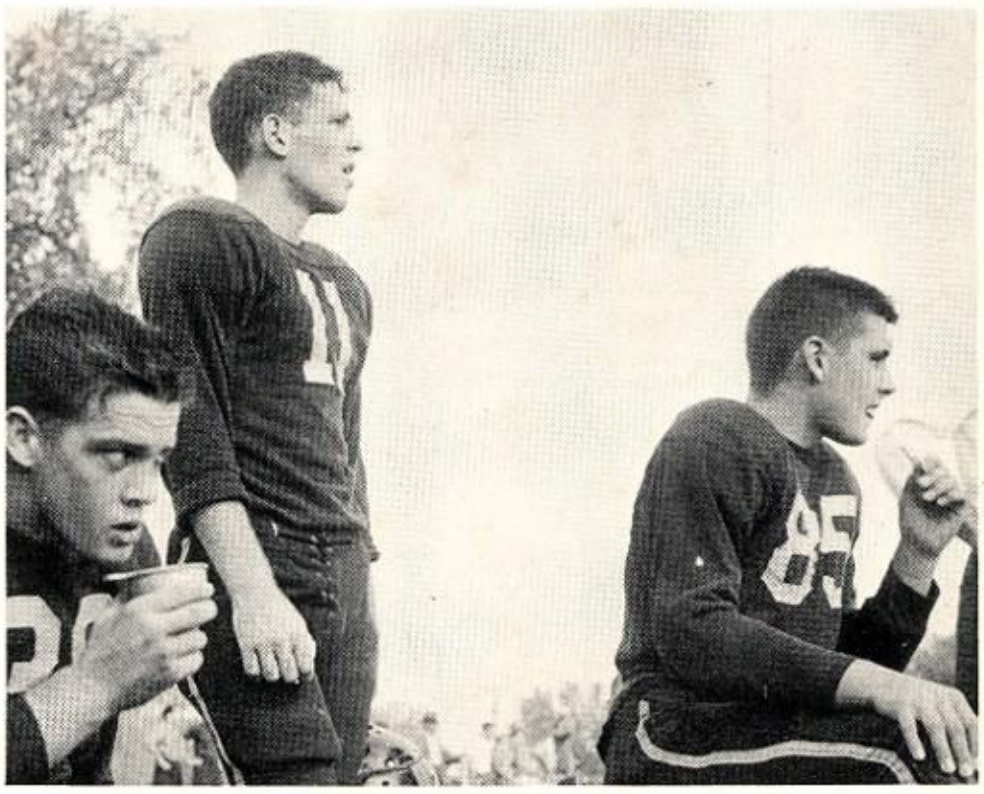
Carmel opened the season by regaining the Tony Serchia Trophy with an upset over McQuaid. With a 3-3-1 record for the year, the team copped third place in the Wayne-Finger Lakes League. Halfback Dave Ramsey made first team All Conference in the League and John McLane and John Marangola were given second team honors. John Karpinski, Stan Ciesla, and Denny Donavan were selected as honorable mention. Ciesla was also elected to the Syracuse Herald American's All-Star Team.

First touchdown! First victory!

Fall panorama - blurs and shadows.



"Man, lead me to that steak." John Marangola readies to collect lineman's reward for first TD.



Denny, Bernie and Karp tensely wait for the defensive unit to hand them the ball.

I wonder who's winning right now!

Ol' Man Winter forces practice indoors.

. . . the crowd roars its approval.

Ciesla catches another against Mynderse.

"You just don't punt on their ten yard line."

This year's team certainly wasn't Carmel's greatest, but it won our respect when, after losing five of the first six games, it still managed to end with a victorious season, eight wins and seven losses.

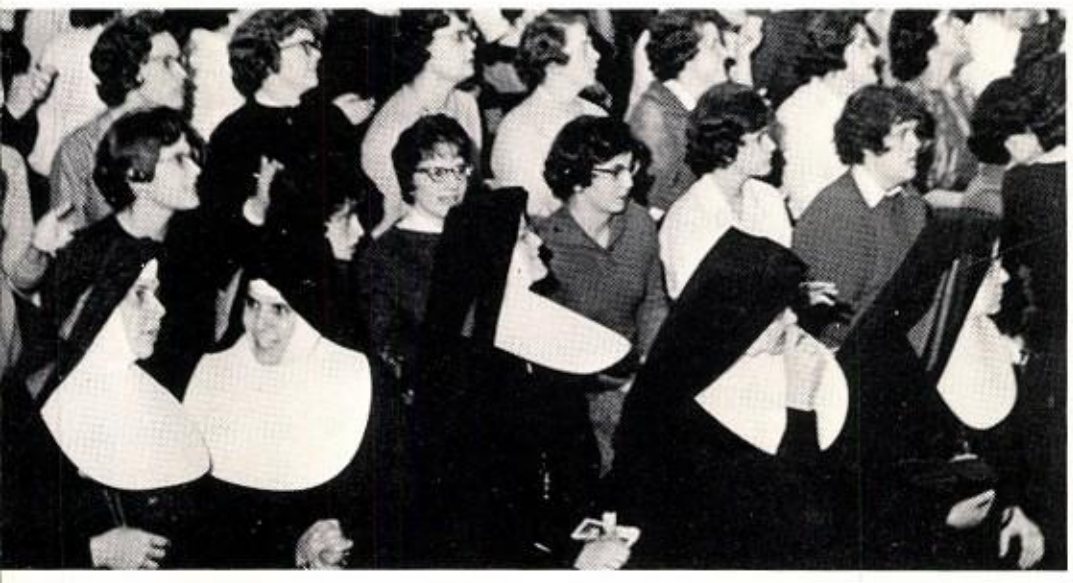
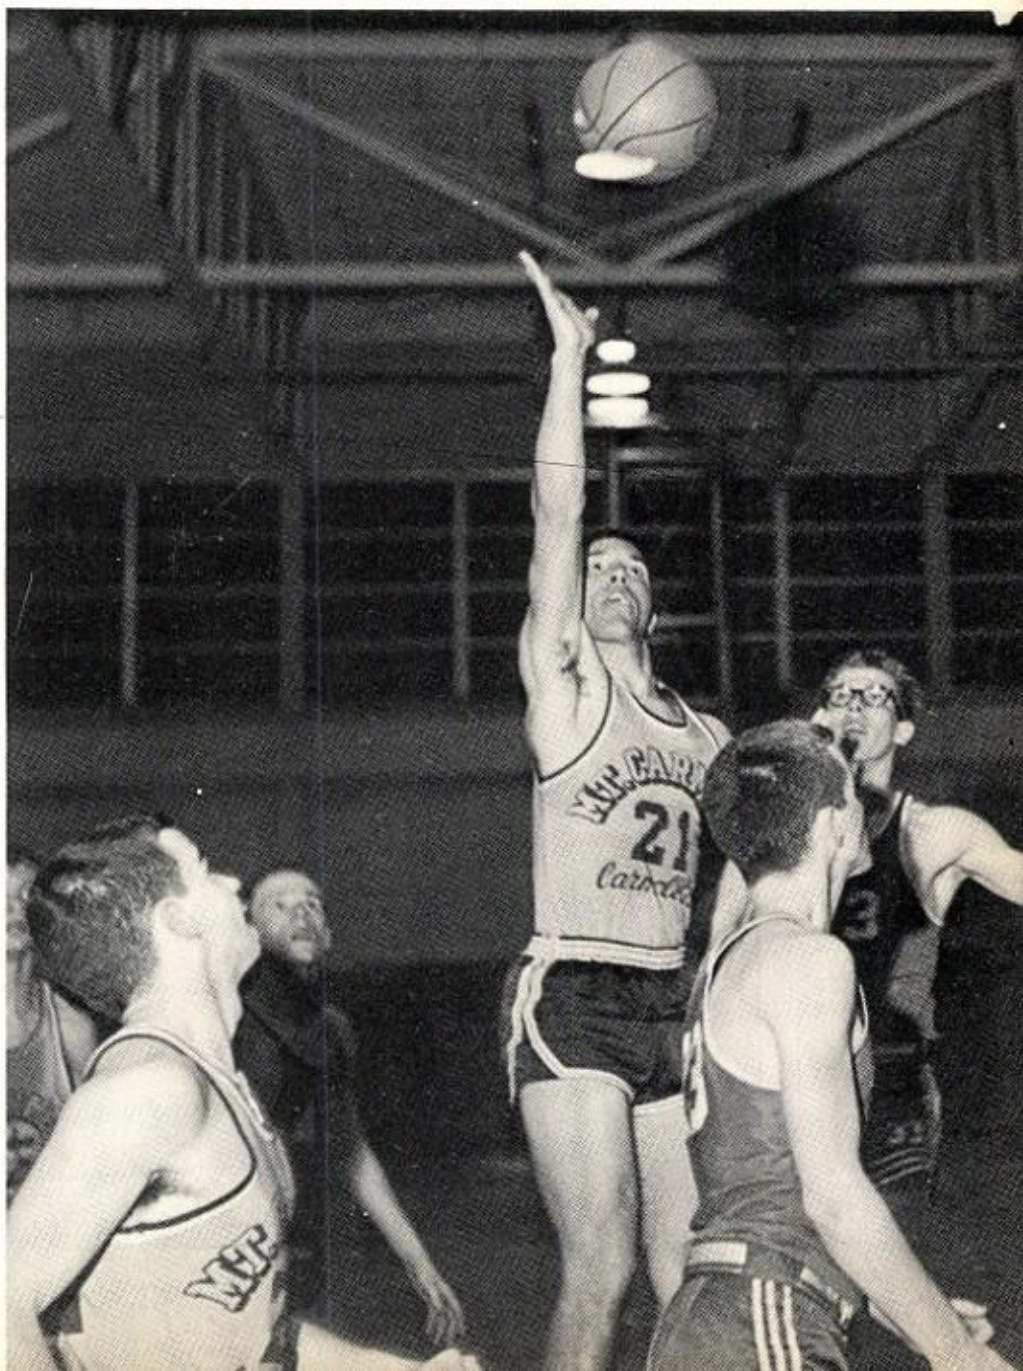
Words of encouragement and advice are given by Coach Bucci during half-time.

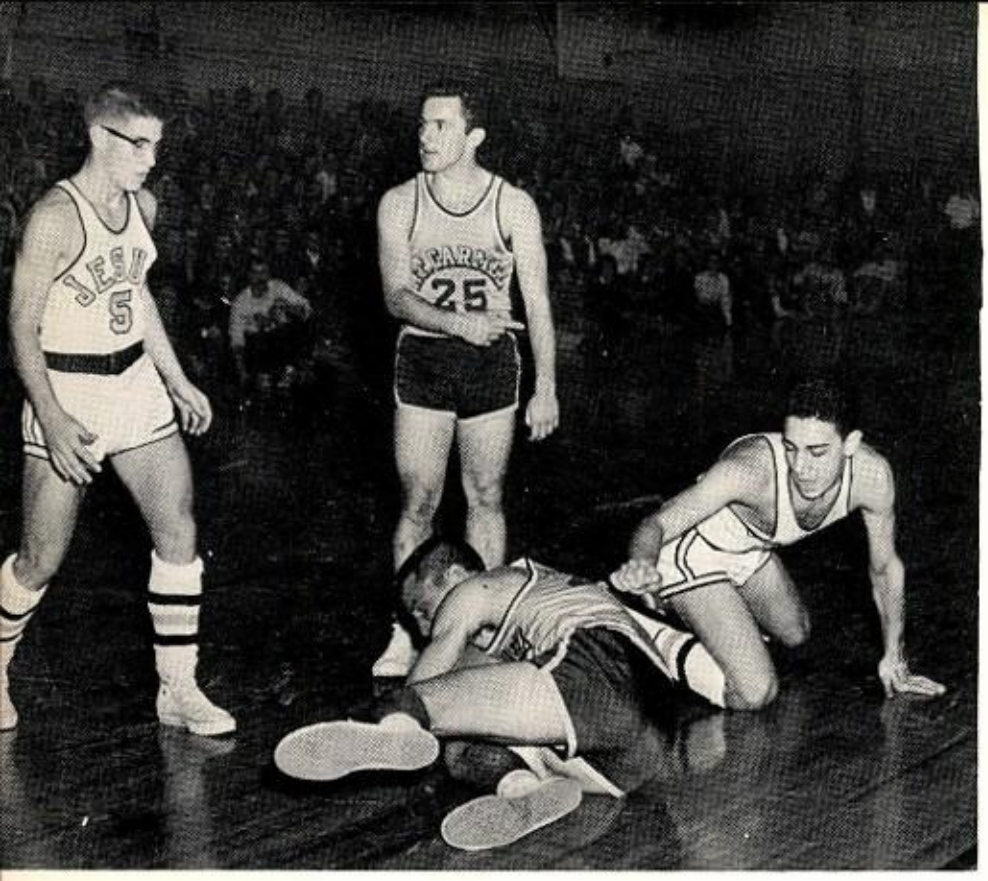
Did he or didn't he?

Go-o-o-o Carmel!

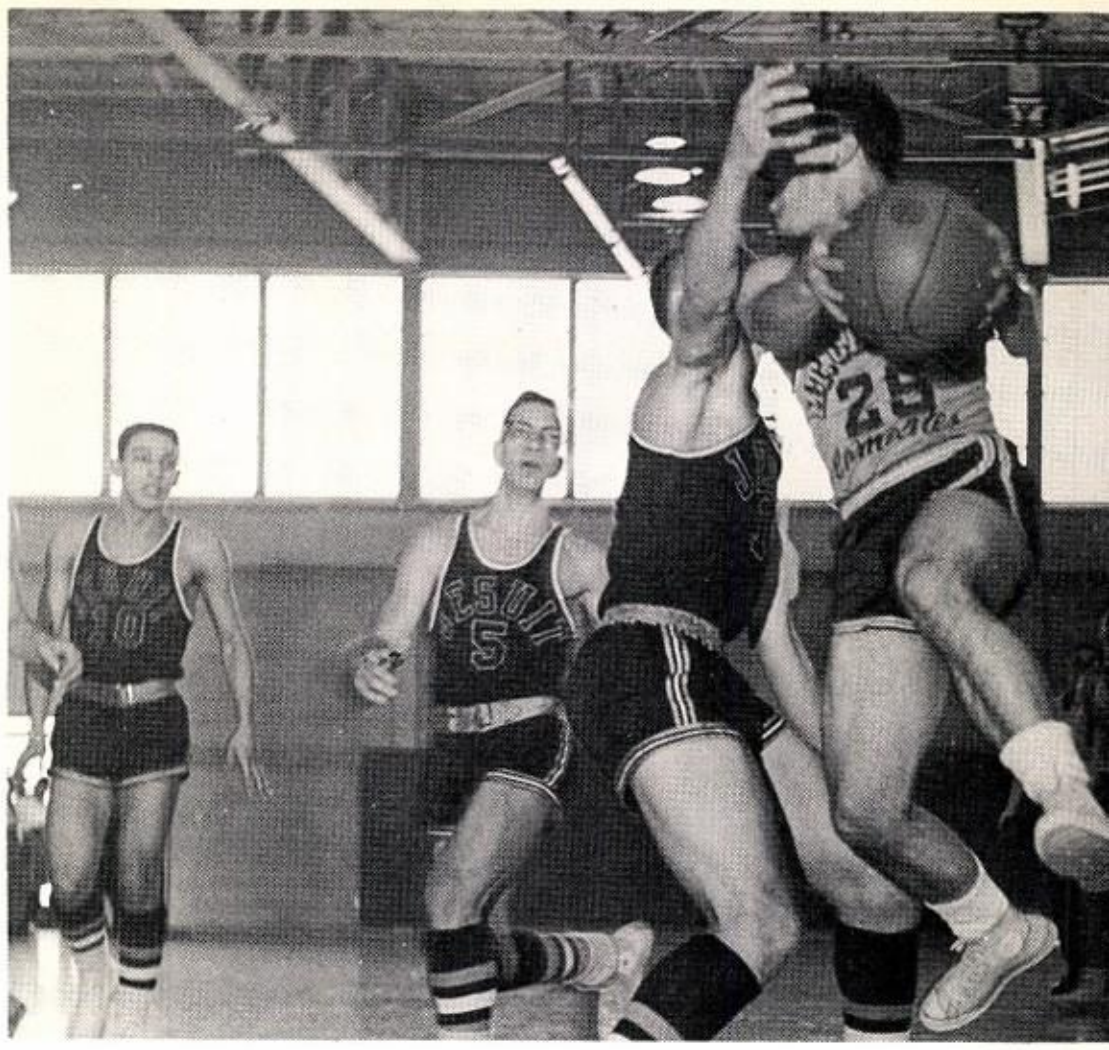


Excitement grips the Sisters and students during a tense moment of the Padua game.

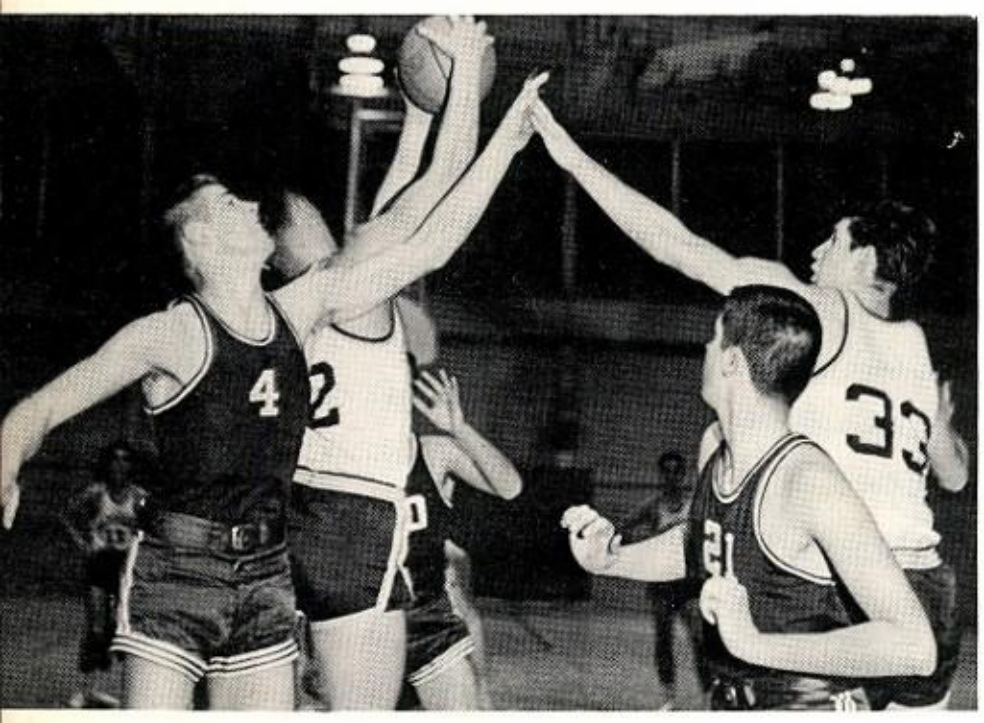




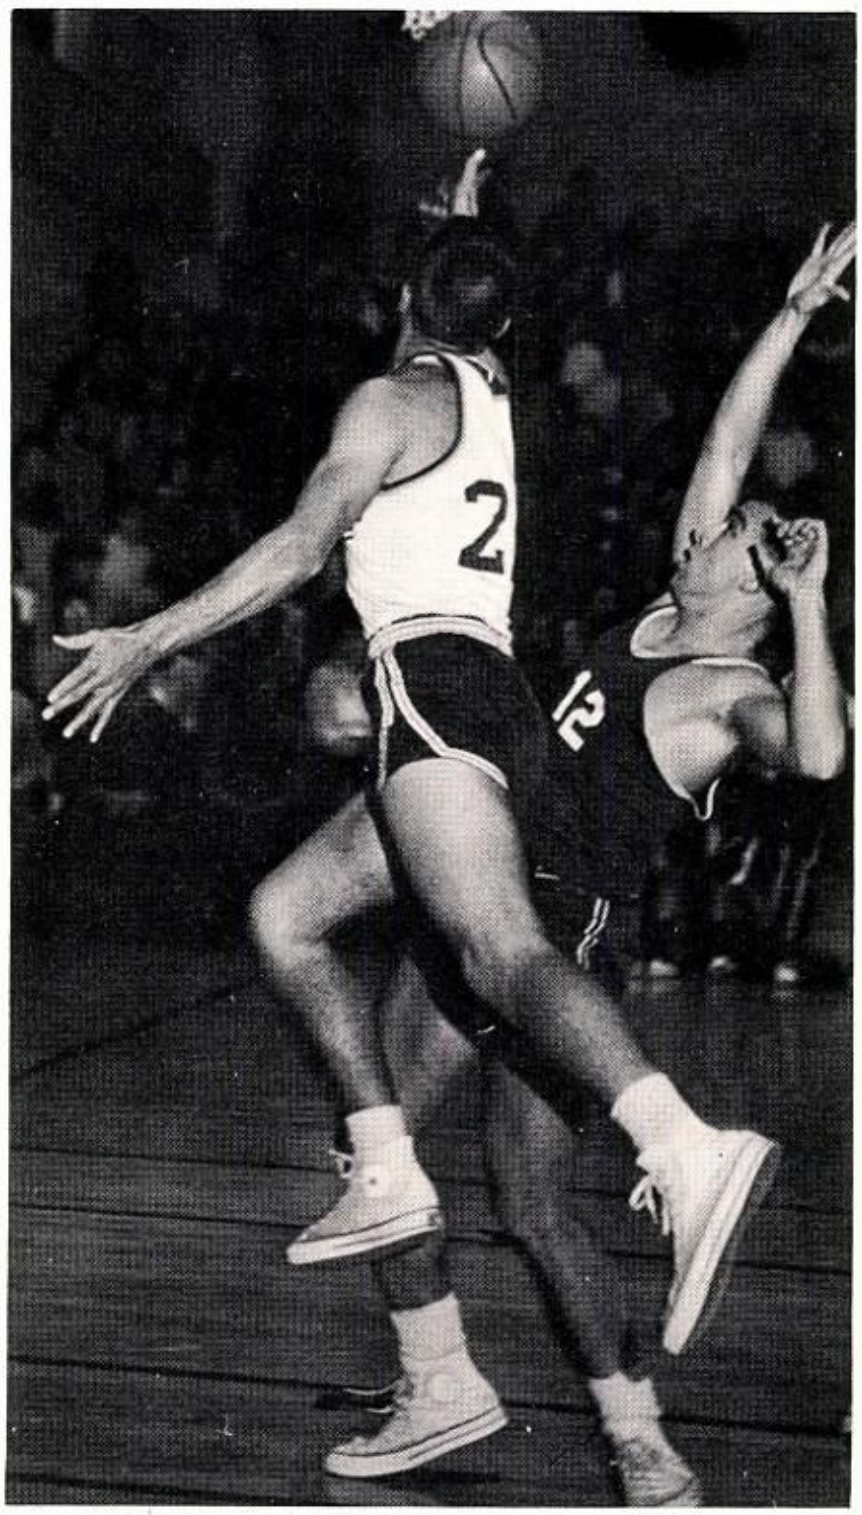
"Try that once more and . . . ."



"Whatta I do now, Coach?"

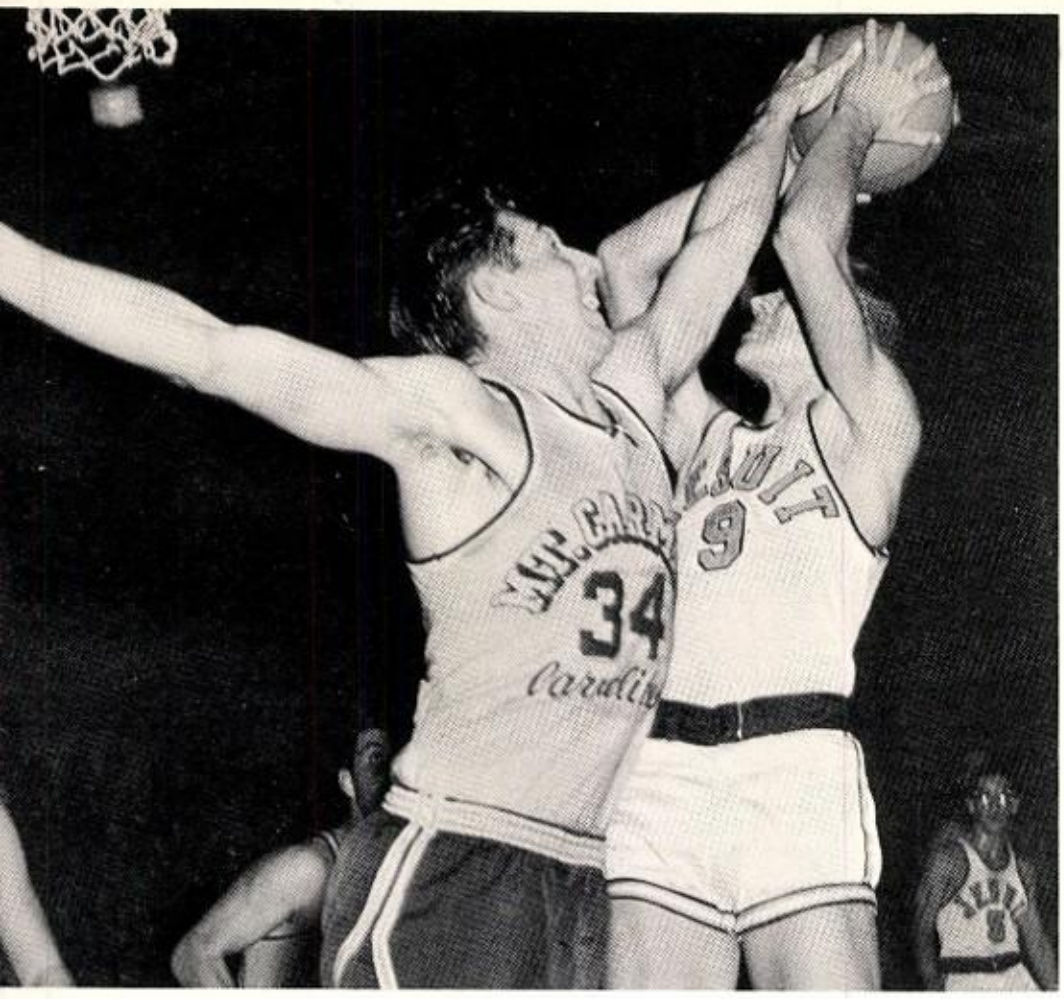


Wilzinski turns away from "London Bridges".



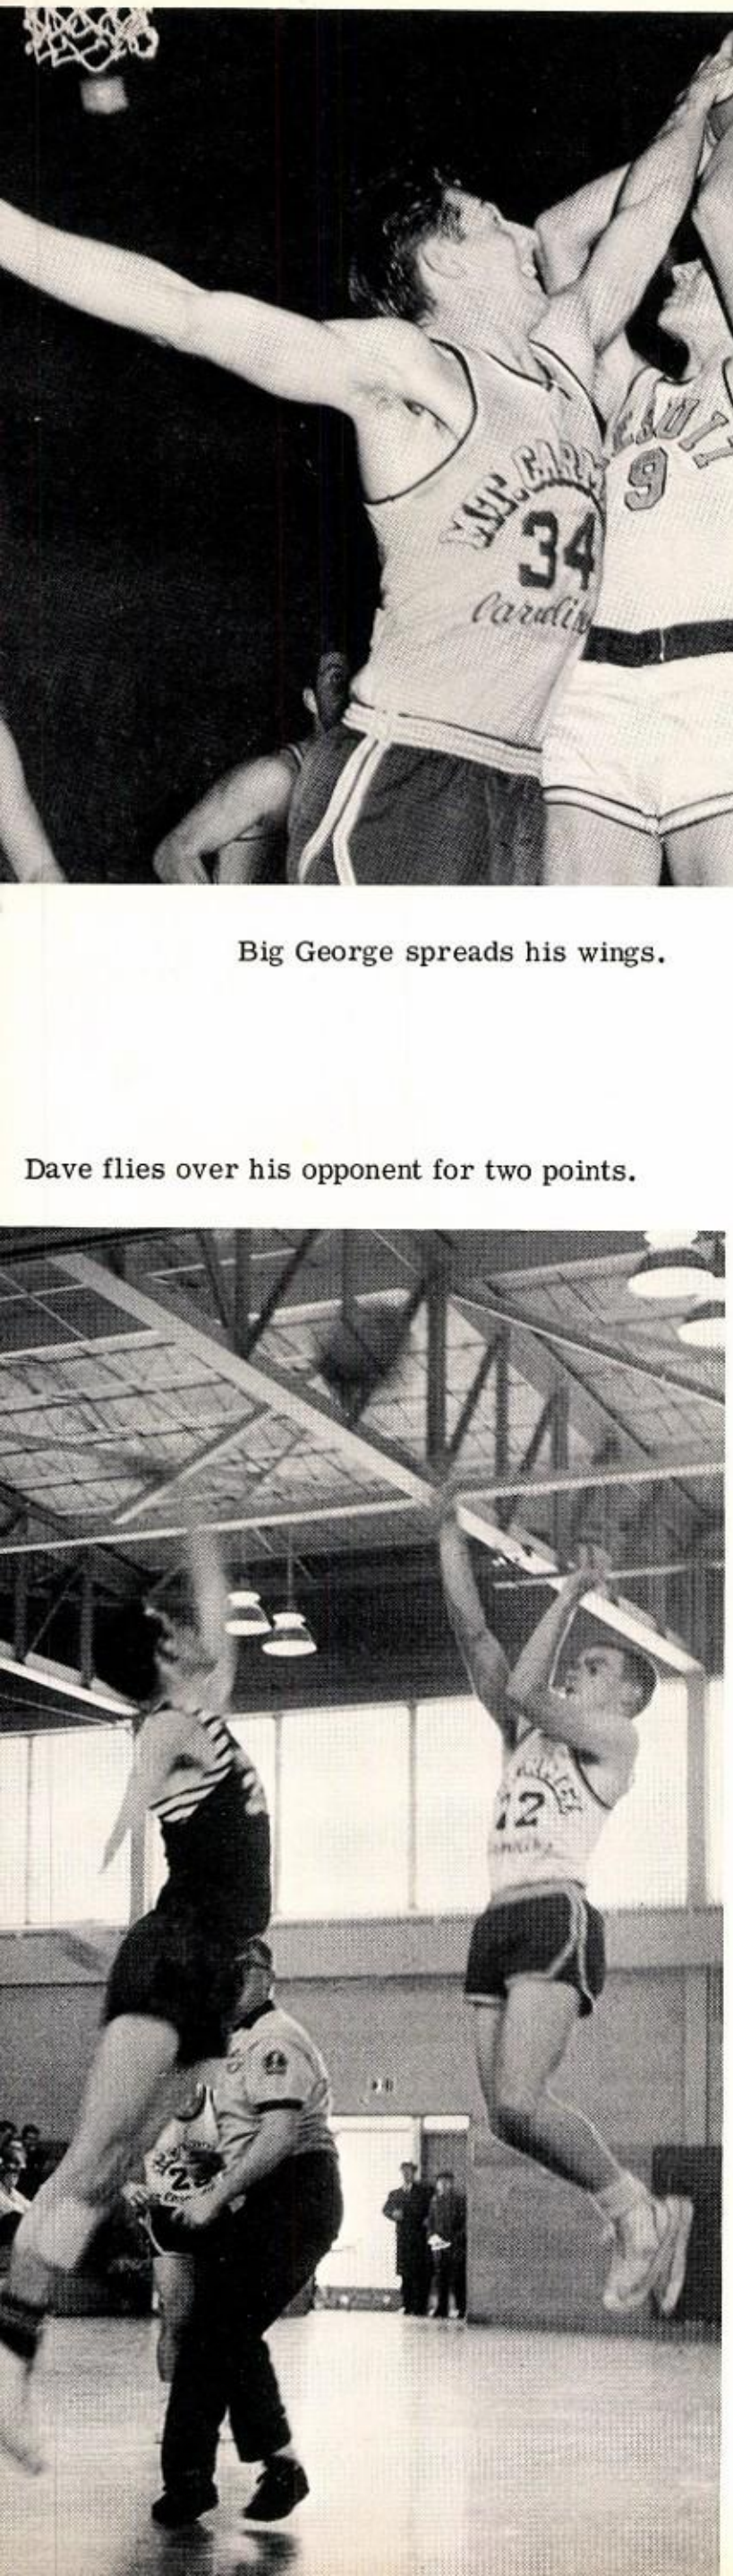
"Good heavens where'd he come from!"

Festa battles for the ball against McQuaid.



Big George spreads his wings.

Dave flies over his opponent for two points.



"Who let that kangaroo in here!"

"Now remember, when that final buzzer rings, lift me up on your shoulders and carry me off the court."

J. V. BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity ended its season with an 8 - 7 record. Here, watching a play develop, are: John Walsh, Manager, Mike Milhausen, Tom Landry, Coach Arthur Foster, Mark Dziedzic, Chuck Medora, Pete A. Wilson, Dick Ruschak, Bill Walsh, Pete Pinckney, Bob Steigerwald and Joe Kuter.

The Freshman Team won all its eight games, including a one point win over McQuaid which was decided by Roger Beer's famous half court shot which went through the hoops just after the final buzzer had sounded. On the team were: Brian Alger, Bill Longo, Paul Bona, Bill Donofrio, Mike Kenny and Joe Conboy: Managers, Ed Kunkel, Earl Thurston, Coach Roger Bernier, Pete Herrling, John Klink, Roger Beer, Dave Fennessey and Wayne Smeaton.

The Rifle Team proudly displays its trophies. Joseph Panna, Frederick Mack, Thomas Shea, Barry Robbins, Stanley Czoloski, George Steigerwald, John Mierzwa, Thomas Ward, William Lutz, James Hawley, and Michael Nicpon.

Chipmunks on the Climb! The Varsity Cheerleaders who added so much glee and glamor to our games, and who won second place in the Rochester CYO Cheerleading Contest. Clockwise from the top inside are: Patti DiFabio, Marlene Manzone, Bettsy Davis, Frani Conboy, Jackie Alger, Sue Ide, Lynn Anderson, Peggy Ganley, Mary Alice Adams, Lorraine Lynch, Sue Kudla and Rosemary Oropallo.

Daughters of time, the hypocritic Days,
Muffled and dumb like barefoot dervishes,
And marching single in an endless file,
Bring diadems and fagots in their hands.
To each they offer gifts after his will,
Bread, kingdoms, stars, and sky that holds them all. . .

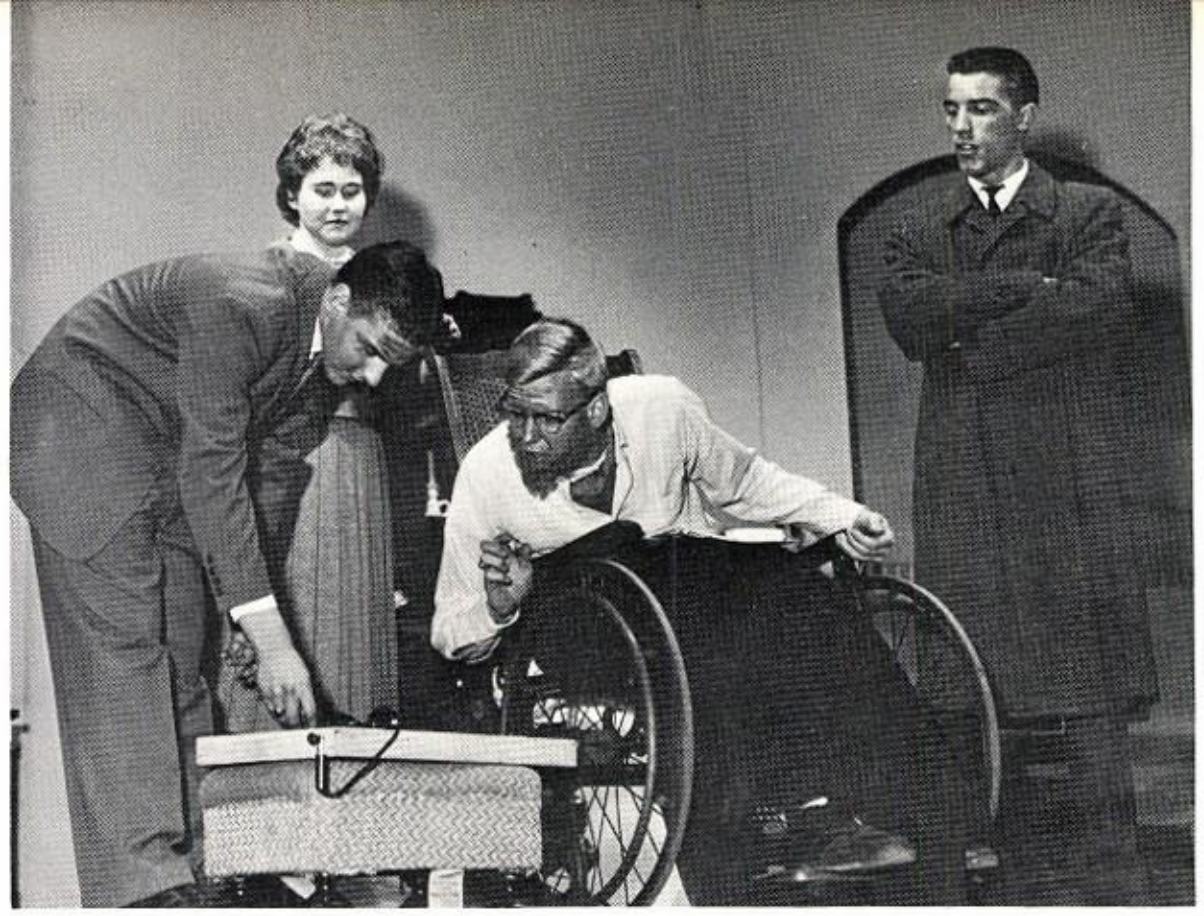
. . . standing over there?"



Professor Metz donates his special collection: "Periplaneta Americana -- commonly known as the American cockroach."

Thanks to the Khedive of Egypt Miss Sheldon will be off on a world cruise.

Performers' Preview.

Interrupting the peaceful Christmas broadcast, Miss Preen brings special tidings: "A penguin bit me!"

DIADEM

Judy Siracusa, Sandy Wilson, Fr. Malachy, Ray D'Agostino, Linda Corcoran, Joe Zobkiw, John Karpinski, Dick Lawler and Sharon Myers.

Nine nite-time helpers! Judy Siracusa, Karen Orr, Joe Zobkiw and friends.

Judy Pearce at the old collecting post.

CARMEL'S MOTHERS AND DADS

Fr. Nicholas, Mr. John Herrling, Treasurer; Mr. William McKeon, President; Mr. Nin Ferlenda, Vice President; Mr. Raymond Clancy, Past President and Mr. Thomas McGee, Secretary.

Mrs. William Dunn, Vice President; Mrs. Howard Leaf, President; Mrs. Rocco Malvaso, Past President; Mrs. William Foster, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Harold Weaver, Treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Greene, Financial Secretary and Mrs. Burt Clark, Corresponding Secretary.

Paul Resty, Jane Ruva, Shelia McGinn, Joyce Triola, Carolyn Miskell, Joseph Zobkiw, Karen Orr, Doug Cameron, David Fedor, Michael Bergan, Gregory St. John, Michael May, William Jennings, and Joseph Lattimore practice on a club project--how to use the slide rule.

SCIENCE CLUB

Happily giving up their activity period for a greater appreciation of Brahms and Beethoven are: Mary Jane Mitchell, Ann Marie Casper, Karen Orr, Theresa Delmonte, Joyce Triola, Joyce Ferlenda, Veronica Giangreco, Joanne Kanally, Helen Gormley, Mary Burns, Gail Warren and Carol Piorun.

CLASSICAL MUSIC CLUBS

Some crew-cuts who spent the year becoming long hairs: Edward Asam, Samuel Carnicelli, Joseph Wilson, Richard Lawler, Ross Siracusa, John Emperor, Richard Wenderlich, Alan Speck, David Gonyea, Edward Flanigan and Joseph Kaiser with their club moderator Brother Aquinas.

HOMEMAKING

The Homemaking Club sells their cookies and candies for the benefit of the Sisters' Infirmary in Rochester.

"How's the smocking on this one girls?" says Helen Gormley to Grace Spoto, Marilyn Scheftic, Judith Siracusa, Carlene Falgitano and Wynn Weaver.

Marie Salvatore, Teresa Dellmonte, Joyce Ferlenda, Joanne Micucci, Rose Carbone, Joy Pamplum, Jeannine Ferrara, Lucille Addabbo, Louise Farrell, Wynn Weaver, Donna Hyland, Mary Burns and Carol Colella would brighten up any office.

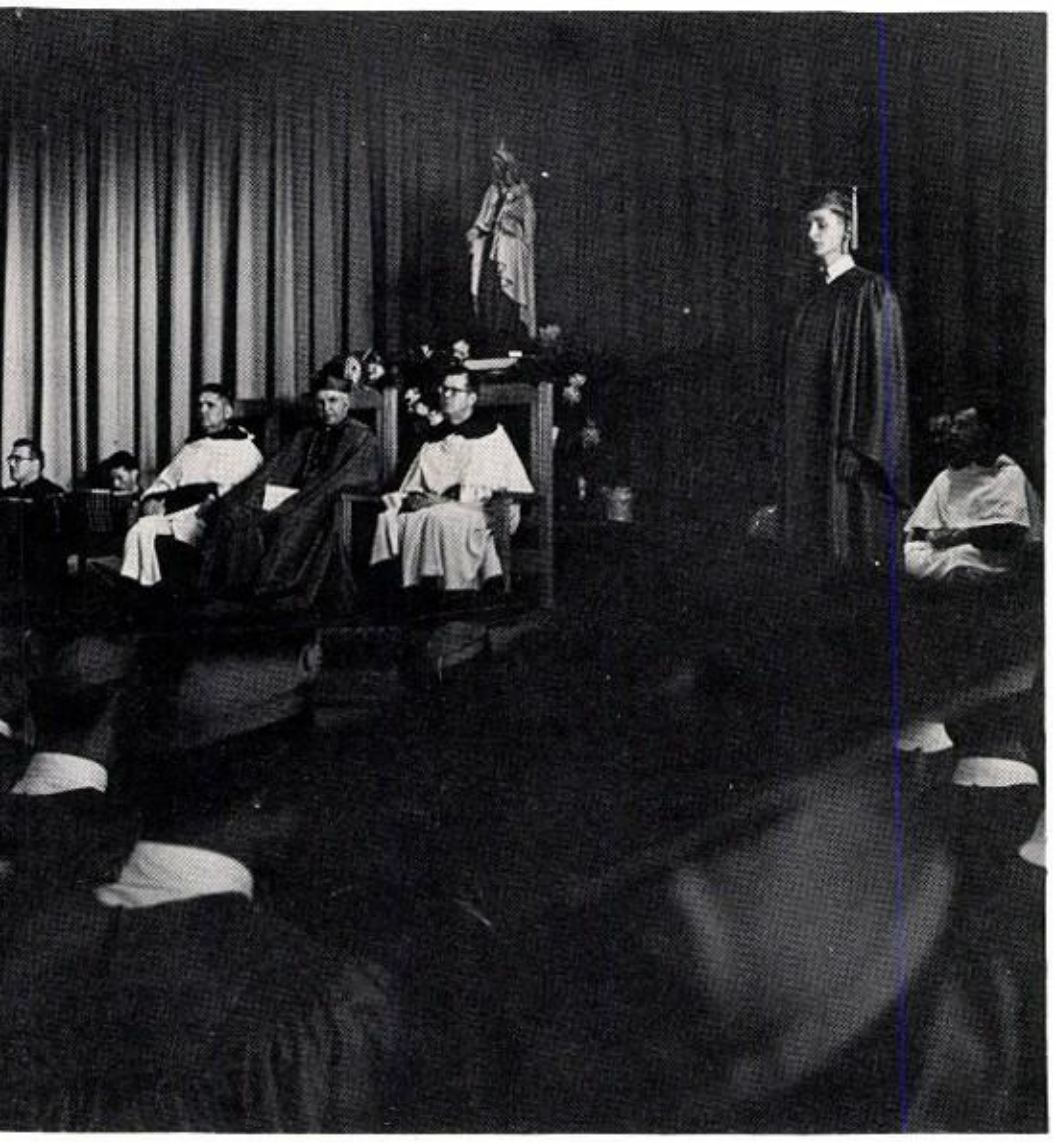
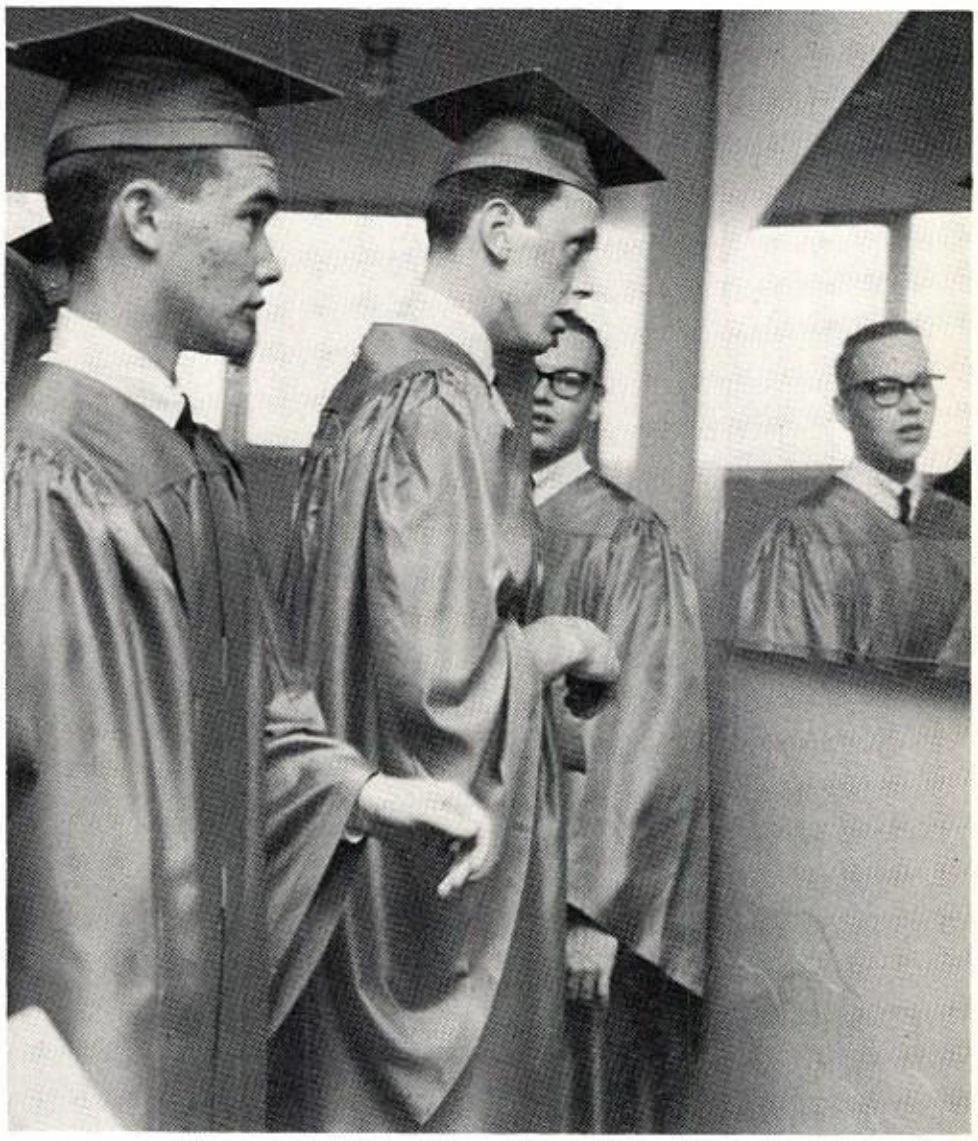
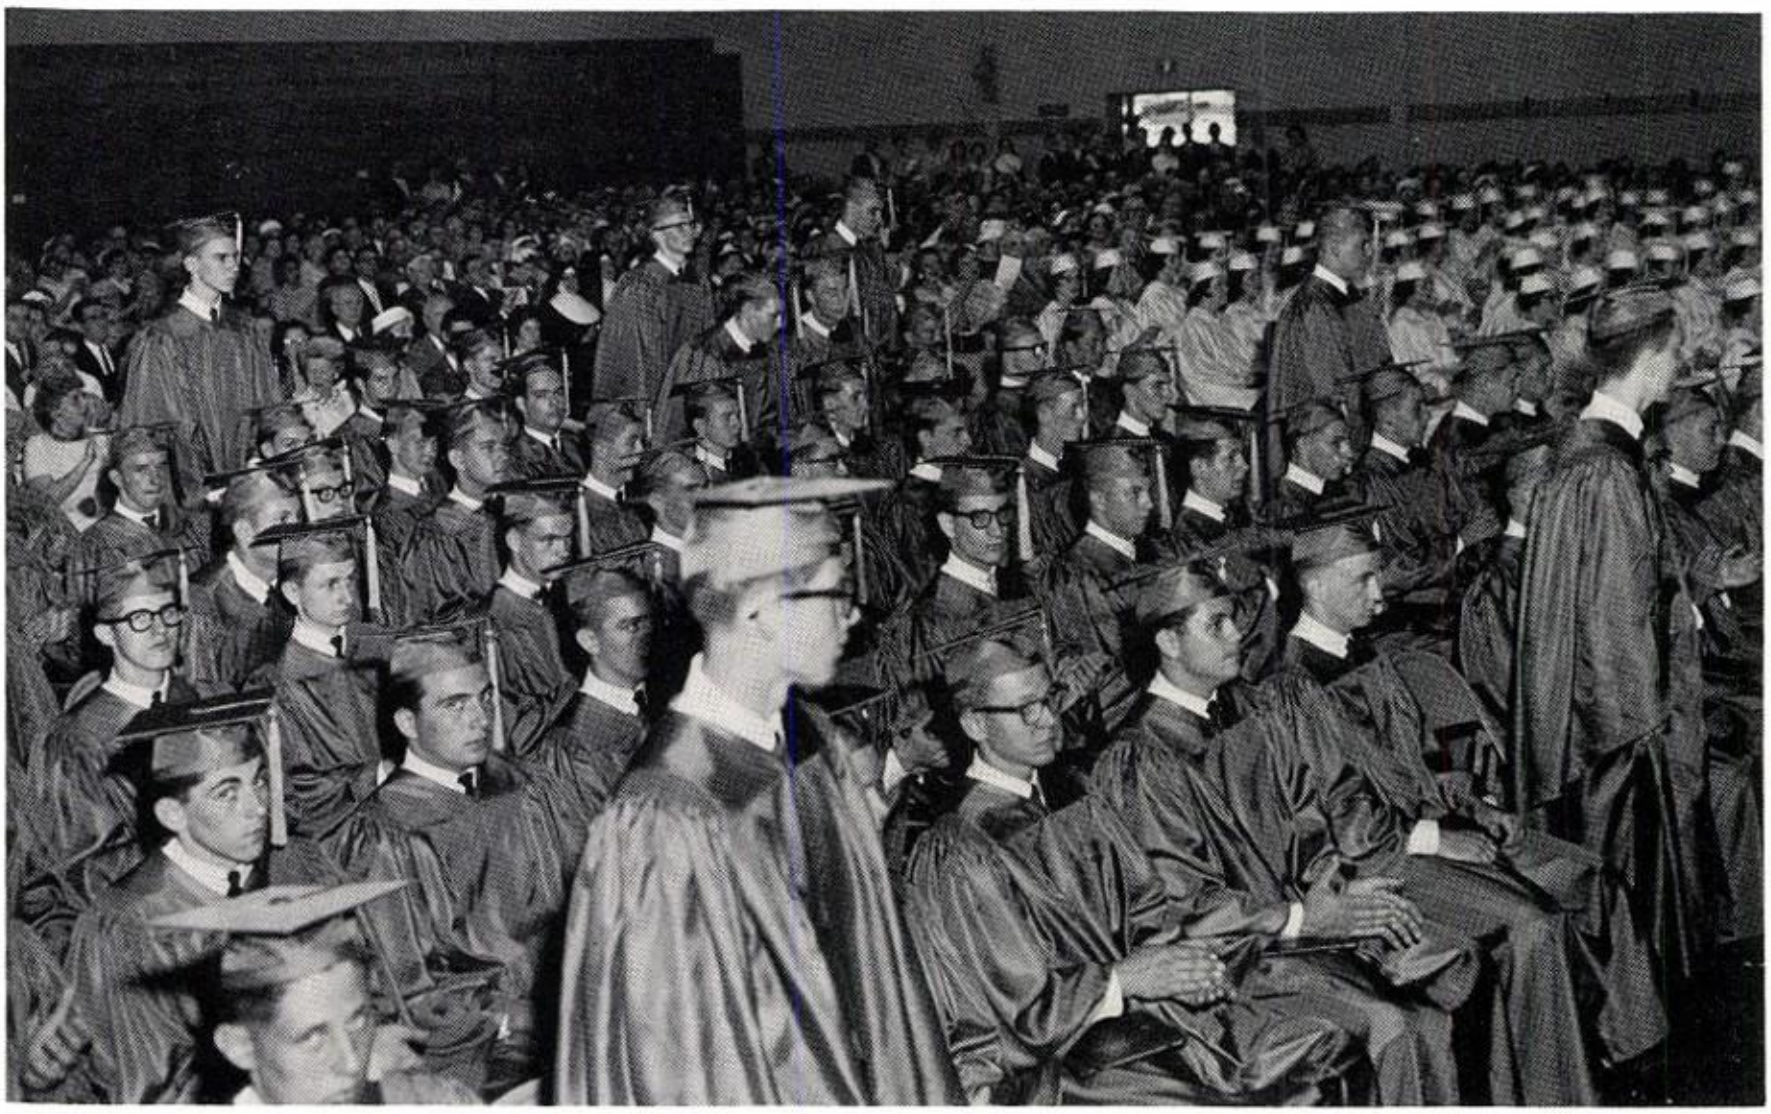
GRADUATION - 1961



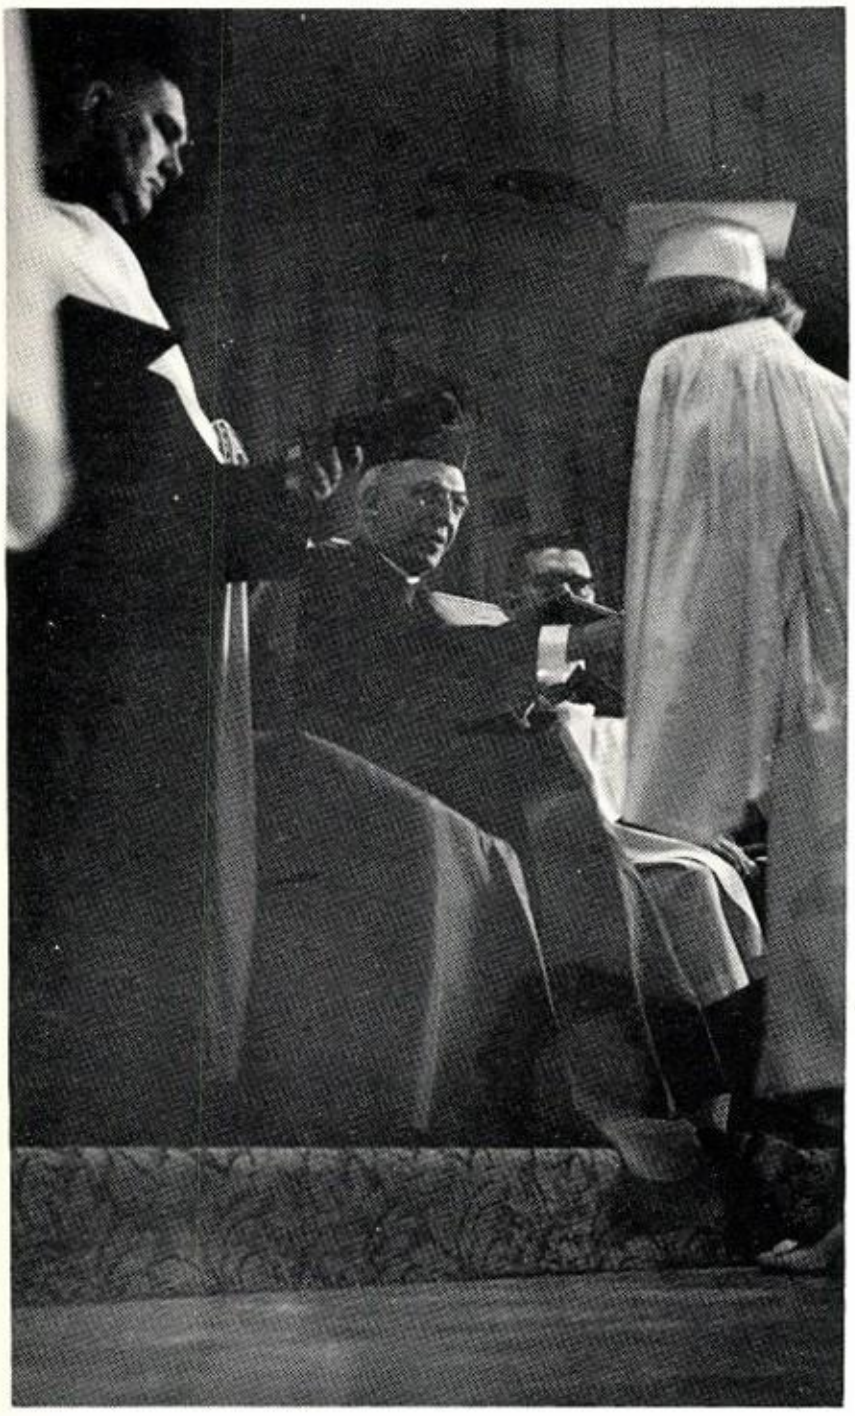
Raymond D'Agostino delivers the valedictory.



Solons at their salon.



Eight of the eighteen Regent's Scholarship winners on the rise.



The goal of four years is finally attained.

"I've got the whole world in my hands."

Flanked by Fathers Vincent and Brendan, Bishop Casey gives his blessing.

PEAKS AT THE MOUNT

Another first. Dick Taylor and Rudy Paolangeli of WAUB broadcasted our football games.

No football for him, poor soul!

The truth is out! Santa is a girl. At least he (she?) was at the Sodality Christmas party. Just ask Pat Marullo.

The CSMC at a movie. But are they all watching the same screen?

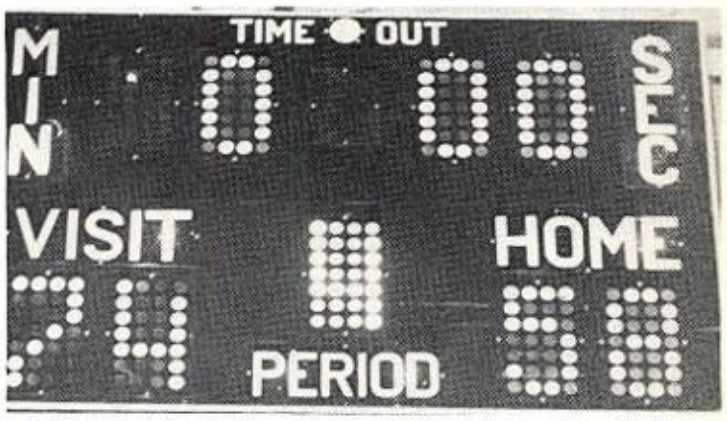
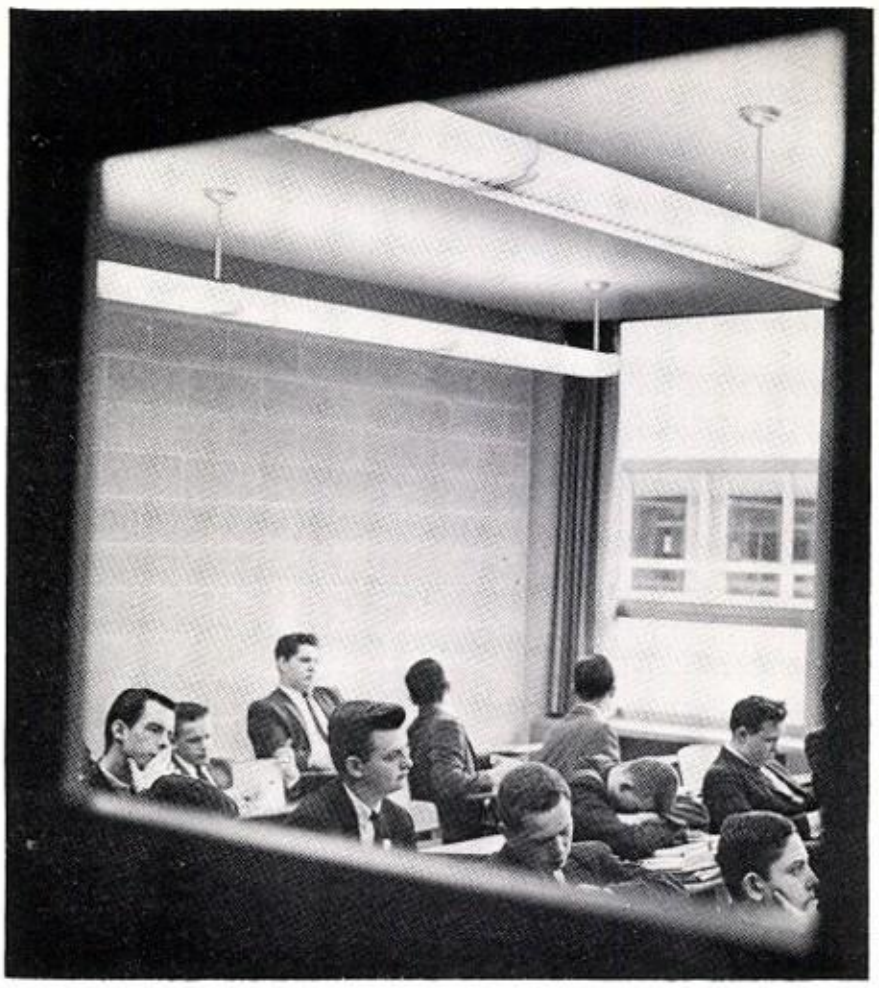
Sisters' faculty. . .1966 version.

Gravy train. Making their own gravy.



Then there was the opening round of the Diocesan Tournament against DeSales of Geneva.

Nomination for bravest man of the year: Jim Duffy who appeared in Reynold's Wrap for the Christmas Play. Here, he issues orders to Duke Schneider.



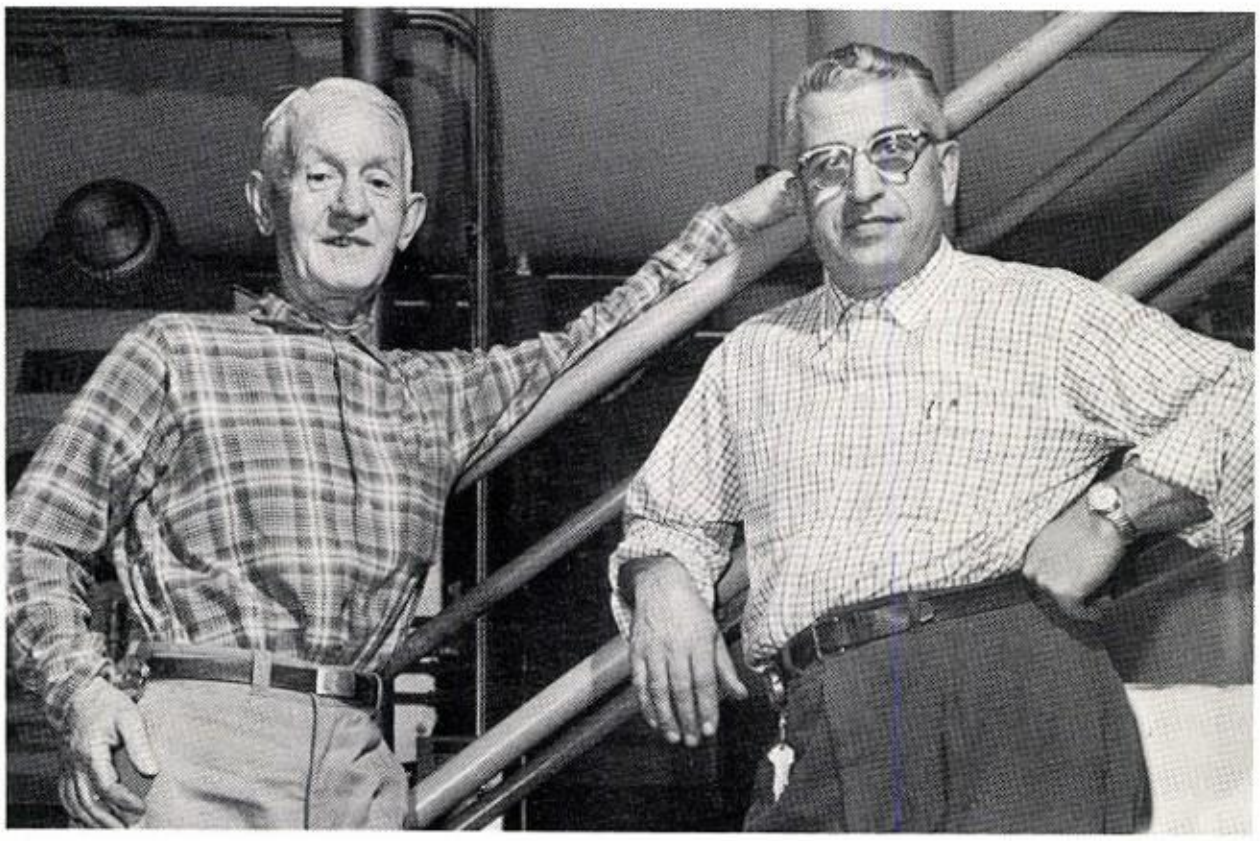
Class after lunch: full stomachs and empty heads.

Is there any doubt who just won the school Knights of Columbus Oratorical Contest? Joanne Kanalley is flanked by follow-ups Ned Asam and Bettsy Davis. Joanne later won the county and district contests and went on to the finals in New York City.

Neither rain nor snow could stay these students from their appointed tasks. (But where are the others?)

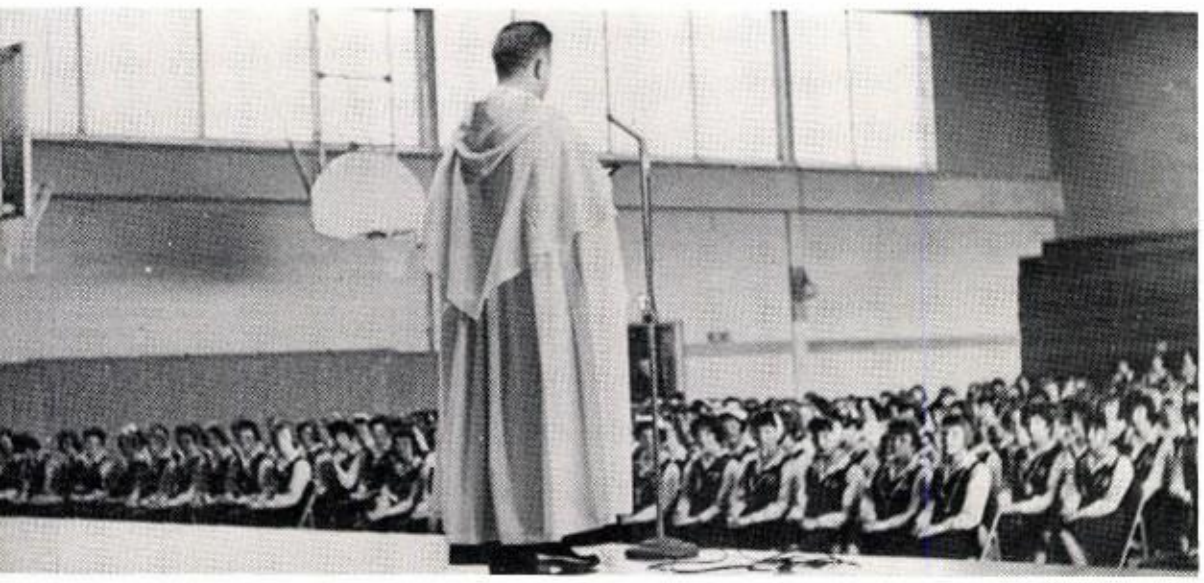
Fr. Aloysius Nagle conducted the annual Retreat.

Faculty 65 - Varsity 61
The Faculty won when the Varsity . . . . . lost their heads.



Mr. Dalton and Mr. Delmonte, school custodians.

Mr. Stapleton and Marcia Kahl participated in Girl's Career Day.



Fr. Eric re-enrolled us in the scapular.

TALENT

Sharon Myers

THE PIE THAT NEVER WAS!

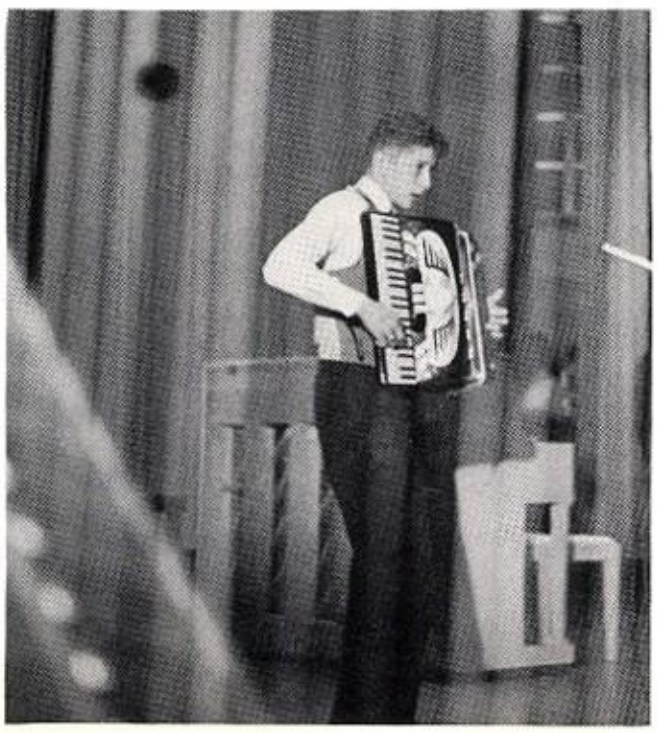
SHOW

After tossing custard pies at one another, Sandy Wilson and Sharon Myers, opposite, cooked up these surprised looks by throwing another pie -- a cotton one -- into the audience.

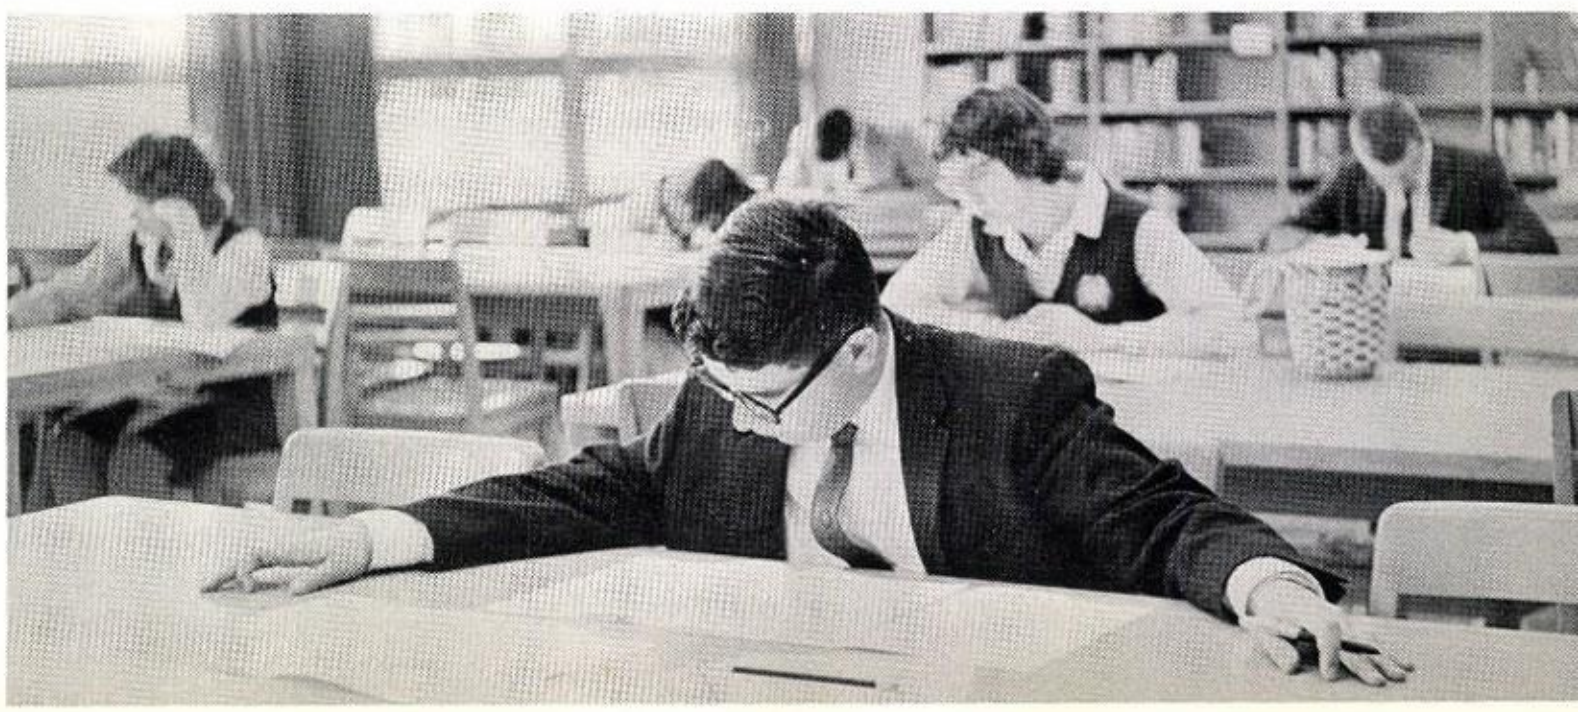
The Carol Nagle Trio



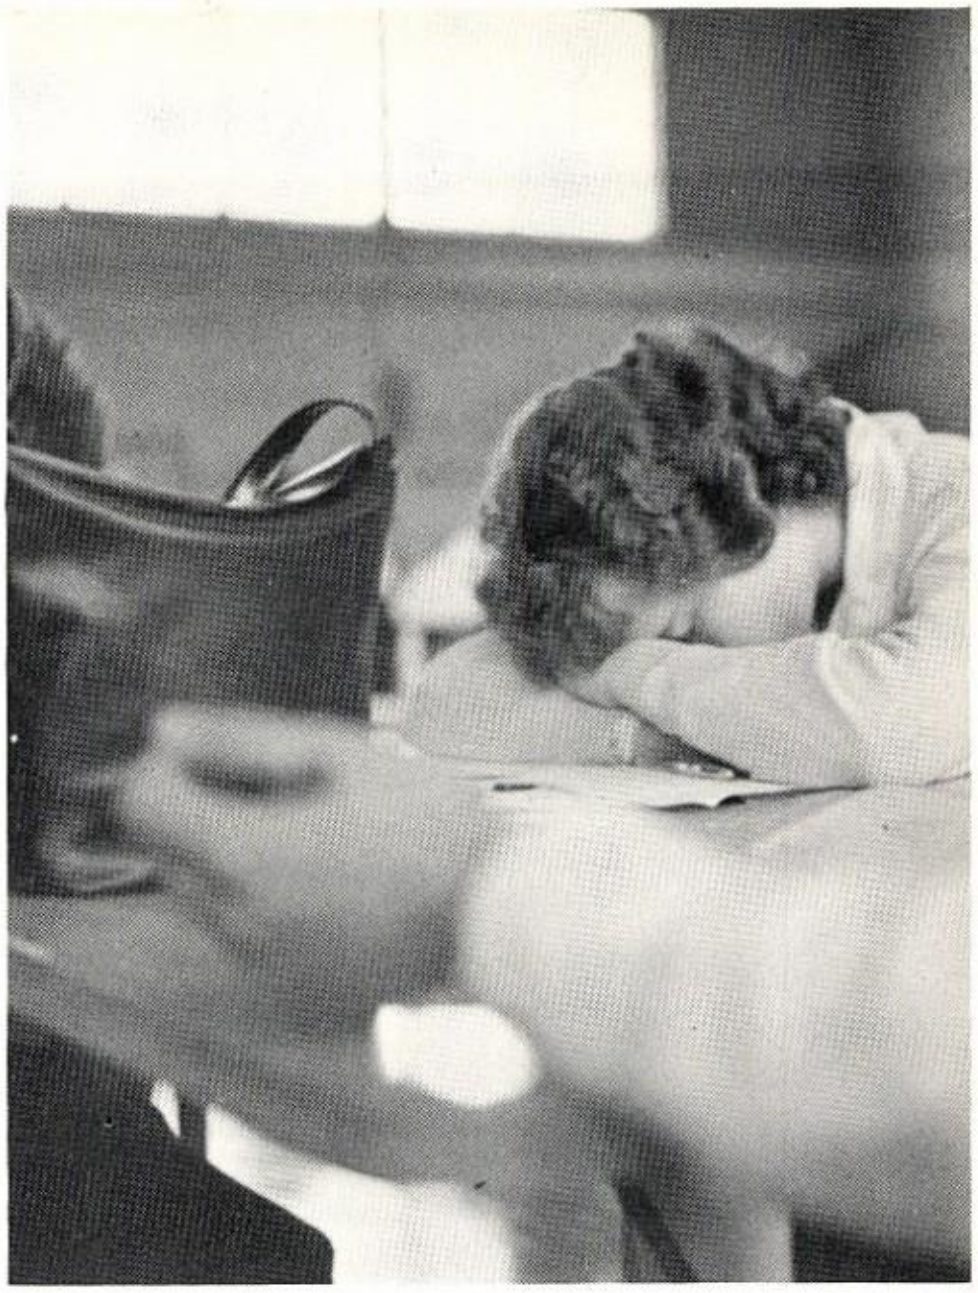
Ted Pettigrass on the accordion; Shelia Stapleton at the harp.

EXAMS

EXAM WEEK -- a source of varied opinions and expressions on the part of students. For some it is a time of wrath and mourning; for others, a welcome climax to a year of concentrated effort.



Third exam and only one nail left!



"Oh! what's the use?"

THE SENIOR PROM

The centerpiece where Our Lady of Mount Carmel reigns between the fountain and the foliage during the night of June the Second.

The Grand March

"UNDER PARIS SKIES"

John McLane and Ann Casper dancing by the fountain.

Monica Maroney with Raymond D'Agostino.

Karen Wells enjoying herself.

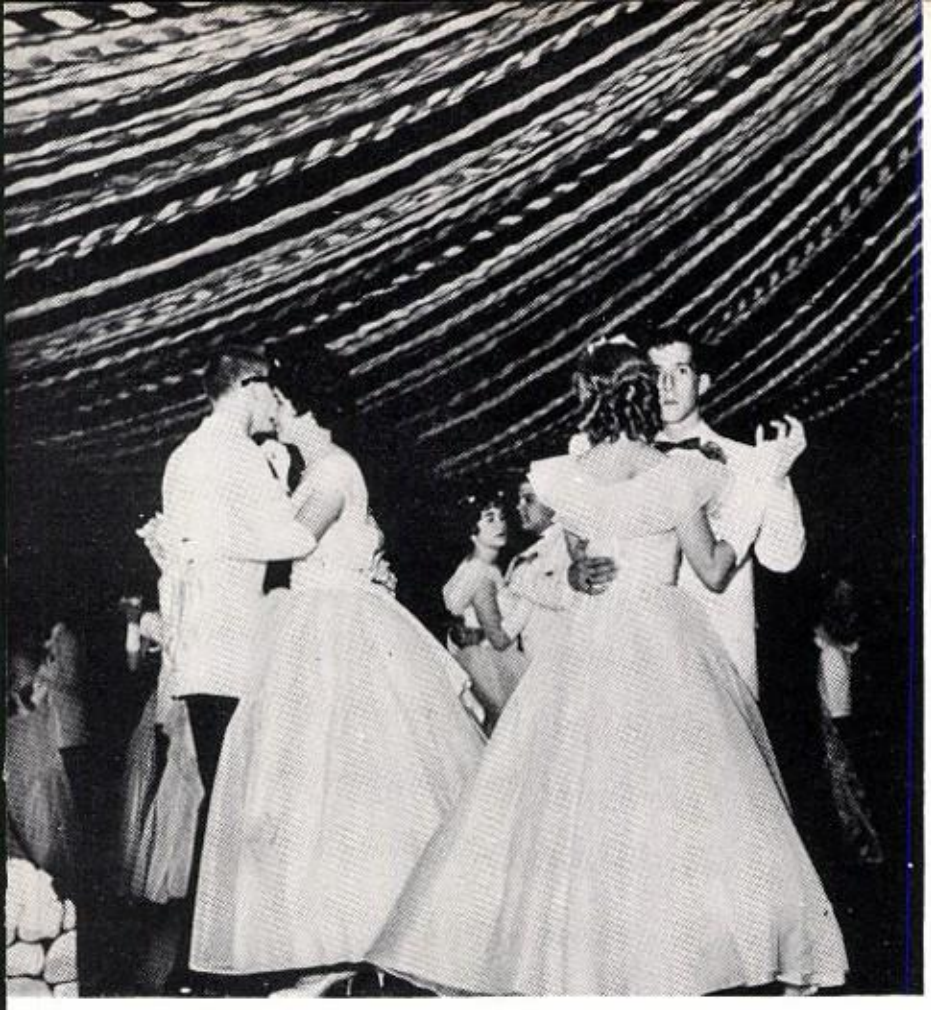
La Belle Soirée

Thus far have the sweet seeds slept close in the earth,
And the smiling Spring sun has given them birth.
Now they prance in the fields and waltz in the villes,
And joyfully clutter the gardens and hills.
But only the dark night and Seine-ripened moon
Can cause them to blossom and yield their perfume.
And now it is evening and darkness has come,
Yet Le Fleuve is aflame with the west-hidden sun.
The stars have appeared like bright diamond-fires
To twinkle aloft behind Notre Dame's spires.
The silver-spangled moon pirouettes through the gloom
As thousands of blossoms release their perfume.
Come! Let us dance under dark Paris skies;
When the matin bells ring we will sigh our good-byes.

LARAINE BARAN

Ross Siracusa with Frani Conboy.

Does the grass look greener elsewhere to Mary LaRose?



Barbara Genova, Judy Lares and their dates whirl around the floor.

Sharon Myers gives the final touches to the gym decorations.

Carol Ryan paints on while Marilyn Scheftic is overawed with her work.

But the just live forever,
and in the Lord is their recompense,
and the thought of them is with the Most High.
Therefore shall they receive the splendid crown,
the beauteous diadem, from the hand of the Lord--
For he shall shelter them with his right hand, and protect them with his arm.

Wisdom 5: 15-16

I dreamt I was having lunch but I do wish you were here. I always remember when we spent together.
Our walks & Troop, chicken dinners in the [illegible] Mrs. Moss
terms [illegible] James, and [illegible] Cayuga [illegible]
"Mom". [illegible] walks. Don't [illegible]
Class Injustices". How about these great Biology and [illegible]
I wish Let be friends forever and never [illegible] each other. Best of luck to you but God help Stan.
Can don't ever forget
